Soniya Dabir Tanksale

Ex Indian Woman Cricketer

Career Objective:

Seeking to move into the corporate world, where I can apply my leadership, team management, and strategic thinking skills developed through my sports career. My goal is to contribute to an organization's success while continuing to grow professionally.

Profile Summary :

I am a former member of the Indian Women's Cricket Team (2010–2014) and have captained the Maharashtra Senior and Under-19 Women's Teams in various prestigious tournaments. My career has honed my leadership, team management, and communication skills, both on and off the field. In addition to playing, I have coached and mentored young cricketers in Maharashtra, focusing on their cricketing skill development and leadership. Now, I am eager to transition into the corporate world, to apply my sports experience in a corporate setting, where I can help organizations and teams achieve their goals through strong leadership, teamwork, and strategic insight.
